

M
O
N
W
E
D
N
E
S
D
A
Y

The Executive Director and Board of Directors Invites You to the Second Anniversary Celebration for Save Them Now

Saturday, Feb. 28th
7 p.m. Dinner at Queens Galley
254 Washington Ave, Kingston, NY 12401
(on the corner of Main Street and Washington Avenue)

Re-entry Program Celebration featuring Music, Great Food & Brief Tours of Save Them Now's Facility

Join us!

Until Feb. 27: $25 pp; $40 couple; $160 table of 8

At door: $30pp/$45 couple/$175 table

Please make checks payable to Save Them Now and mail to:

Jonathan R. Sennett, Attorney at Law,
2 Main Street, Suite 201, Kingston, New York 12401
Telephone: (845) 383-1202

Save Them Now is an independent NYS not-for-profit corporation, founded in 2007 with assistance from the New Progressive Baptist Church, 8 Hone Street, Kingston, NY. STN's mission is to assist Ulster County residents leaving incarceration or long term treatment programs in finding permanent housing and employment while helping them re-establish ties to family, friends and community. The program houses 12 residents at 254 Washington Avenue.

Information: Patrice Courtney Strong at 845.331.2238 or e-mail: pcourtneystrong@gmail.com

Your Hosts, the Save Them Now Board of Directors: Ronnie Wade (Executive Director), Rev. Dr. G. Modele Clarke, Cantor Bob Cohen, Patrice Courtney Strong, Diana Francis,
Jonathan R. Sennett, Rita Worthington, William F. Berardi, CPA