ULSTERCORPS

Give an hour—
get back a lot more.

In these tough financial times Service Agencies in Ulster County must depend on volunteers now more than ever to keep afloat. UlsterCorps is a new initiative which connects volunteers with service opportunities in Ulster County. Whenever you can offer an hour or more of your time, there is a local agency or project that could use your help.

Join our community of Ulster County residents who are reaching out to help people and projects in need:
